

Building Manhattan Bingo

Bingo is a fun way to work on both vocabulary and story comprehension. Using words and concepts from Building Manhattan, this simple game can be used as an enrichment activity to reinforce children's retention of the material.

Print these pages and make copies if needed. Cut both the sheets and calling cards out. I recommend laminating the cards if you have multiple classes or plan to use them again.

These sheet were randomly generated, so some words may appear more than once on a card. This will not affect the playing of the game as the twenty calling cards included are unique.

General scoring rules apply. Play with friends, family or classmates and share the fun of Building Manhattan!
